

Getting it Right for Every Child

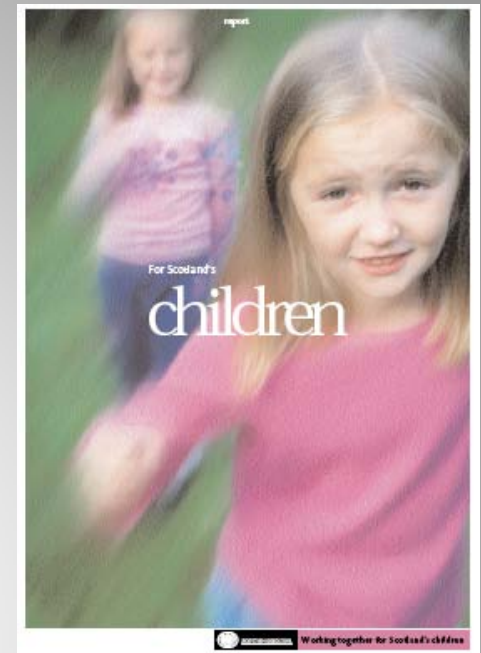

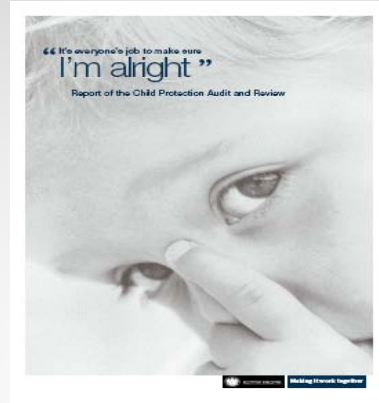

Integrated Assessment Framework

East Ayrshire Council

NHS Ayrshire and Arran

Background

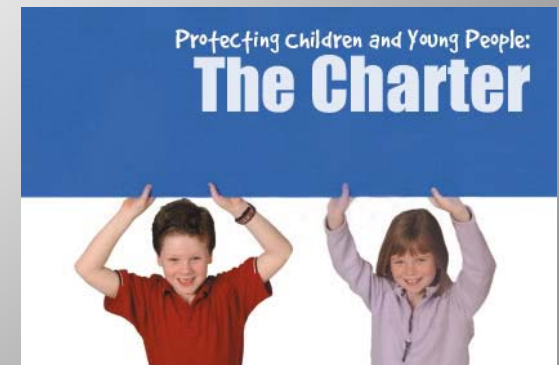

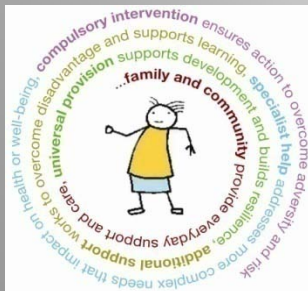

For Scotland's Children – Better Integrated Children's Services (2001)

It's Everyone's Job to Make Sure I'm Alright – Report of the Child Protection Audit and Review (2002)

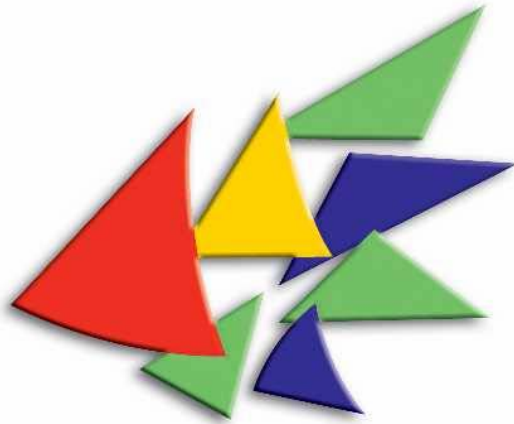

Additional Support for Learning (Scotland) Act (2004)

Getting It Right for Every Child (2005)

The Ayrshire Model

- Promotes the systematic early identification of concerns about a child by all agencies from pre-birth onwards
- Builds incrementally to ensure children & families receive the support and services they require
- Reduces duplication and streamlines report writing consistently with the common language and assessment framework of GIRFEC
- Is a fully co-ordinated systematic approach to the gathering, recording and evaluation of information
