None		I would recommend refusing this application as it is a specialised activity that is for the very active. At the moment the group caters for a small number of people. They have no strategy for encouraging more people to join. There is already a very active walking group which meets weekly in Auchinleck to encourage and promote healthier lifestyles. It has been suggested to the group that they link into the walking group and perhaps offer something to those who are ready to move on from relatively low level walks.
