4	How will the grant develop the group/organisation or benefit the local community?
	In the first instance, this will only benefit the current members, their parents/guardians and families. However, it is envisaged that a village football club such as this will provide a source of entertainment for many more young people in the future. It is important to mention that Drongan is a community which falls within the top 25% areas of multiple deprivation in Scotland according to the Scottish Executive and the provision of Sport & Leisure opportunities can contribute towards alleviating many of the circumstances that this status brings about.

					For reasons outlined in point 4 above, the establishment of a Sports Club within the Village of Drongan must be encouraged. However, those responsible for the club should also be encouraged to get into the habit of fundraising if the club is to be sustained and therefore they should be set a target of £50 to raise towards the cost of this project. Also, the club should be signposted towards affiliating to East Ayrshire Sports Council were they may be able to access a start up grant for the remaining £200 required and also access discounted coach education.
