1

Purpose of the group

To provide a venue for elderly to socialise and make friends. The companionship that emanates from this group is good for the individuals in that they don't often get out and this reduces the feeling of isolation.

2

Purpose of the grant

To provide a summer outing and high tea for members. This is usually the only break away for most of the group. Also part payment towards a Christmas meal, again this reduces isolation as many have little or no companionship at this time of year.

3a
