The group has applied to the Community Fund for half of their running costs. The outcome will not be known until April 2003. If the group is not successful in their application they will reapply to the local committee.			The club is providing a unique service within East Ayrshire. The leisure activities, trips and opportunities to socialise provide an important aspect in the lives of the young people involved. Due to group members having special needs on transport provision, the costs for members are higher than other youth groups. The group also allows parents/carers to have respite. Please see additional information.
